

Is it time to recruit new agents?

Then it's time to offer LIVE-LECTURE classes!

Why? Offering live-lecture license classes in your office is a great way to get new recruits.

- When prospects see that you're serious about training, they're more likely to choose to work for you!
- Many students prefer live-lecture classes. Stop sending them straight to another school or broker's office: teach them in your own office!
- Every time a student comes to your class, they strengthen their ties with your office: they see how effective you are as a broker, and find mentors among your other agents.

How? Offering live-lecture prelicense classes just got easier! Rockwell provides you with everything you need to teach a live-lecture class:

- Course PowerPoint presentations;
- Chapter outlines, quizzes, and final exams;
- Practice state license exams;
- A curriculum director to answer all your questions; and
- A variety of additional teaching resources!

How much? Rockwell offers discounted tuition packages at prices that make it easy to make your live-lecture school a profit center!

When? Call Rockwell at 800-221-9347 and get started TODAY!
